

RULES OF THE CONTEST – FILM INDUSTRY SPECIAL SECTION – “GREATEST INDEPENDENT”

Article 1. ORGANIZATION The Festival Nazionale del Cinema e della Televisione is designed and organized by the cultural association Visivamente. The event was realized with the support of: Comune di Benevento, Università degli Studi del Sannio, Regione Campania, Camera di Commercio di Benevento, Ministero dei Beni e delle Attività Culturali e del Turismo - Direzione Generale Cinema, Istituto Luce. To these are added associations, organizations, institutions and private sponsors.

Article 2. OBJECTIVES The mission of the Festival is to refer to the two major means of communication of our century, Cinema and Television, in an outdoor debate where people can and must coexist without any overlap, with the desire of focusing on the world of the small and big screen. A place where people can think and discuss new media, new platforms, movies and upcoming releases, television programs of the past and the present, successful TV shows or unreleased documentaries, welcoming the productions and talking directly with the protagonists.

An open and free Festival designed to understand the value of the Cinema of the past and the one of the future, Television of the present and the past, emerging young talents, their ideas, their creations, the authenticity of unpublished and groundbreaking projects. Five days of meetings dedicated to culture, in-depth study, a national laboratory where people can discuss the great themes which characterized the Italian television and Cinema from the beginning, explained by the ones who directly live those realities.

Article 3. DATE AND LENGTH The 8th edition of the Festival Nazionale del Cinema e della Televisione will take place in Benevento from the 26th to the 30th of June 2024, for a period of five days.

Article 4. THE CONTEST The contest puts in competition featured films produced by independent production houses, without the involvement of the majors. The films could also be self-produced by the director or co-produced by individuals, by some of the actors or by the local institutions (like the Film Commission). The independent movies participating in the special section "LUNGOMETRAGGI INDIPENDENTI - GREATEST INDEPENDENT FILMS" must have been produced between 2023 and 2024, on EU territory.

The works selected by the jury of the Festival Nazionale del Cinema e della Televisione - Città di Benevento, will be displayed online on the official channels of the event during the Kernessee, and to the one that will win Noce D'Oro - Sezione Speciale Lungometraggi "Greatest Independent Film" will be assigned.

Article 5. REGISTRATION CONDITIONS Registration foresees a payment and must be formalized no later than the 31st of March 2024. The official registration form, filled out in all of its parts and signed, must be accompanied by a DVD, a data carrier (Pendrive), or a link in which one can see the movie (All of the non-Italian works must have subtitles already incorporated and not added separately). The document, moreover, must contain a synopsis of the work, biofilmography of the director and every other documentation that can be useful for the selection.

The required material must be sent no later than the 31st of March 2024 to FILMFREEWAY or at the following postal address: Uffici BCT - Via Erchemperto 15, Benevento - 82100 (with the indication "Concorso BCT"). The shipping costs are on the participants.

Article 6. SCREENING OF FILMS The calendar and the times for the screening are the responsibility of the management of the Festival.

Article 7. GENERAL RULES The organization of the contest, while strictly committed to taking care of the works received, does not take responsibility for any kind of postal delays, thefts, damages or loss that these may suffer before they arrive and during or after the event.

The DVD copies sent for the selection will not be returned.
